6. Starting and Ending Round:

a) When to start Round

A player's round starts when the player makes a stroke to start their first hole.

The player must start at (and not before) their starting time:

- This means that the player must be ready to play at the starting time and starting point set by the committee.
- A starting time set by the committee is treated as an exact time (for example, 09:00AM, not any time until 09:01AM).

If the starting time is delayed for any reason (such as weather, slow play of other groups or the need for a ruling by a referee), there is no breach of this Rule if the player is present and ready to play when the player's group is able to start.

Penalty for Breach of Rule: Disqualification, except in these three cases:

- Exception 1 – Player Arrives at Starting Point, Ready to Play, No More Than Five Minutes Late: The player gets the general penalty applied to their first hole.
- Exception 2 – Player Starts No More Than Five Minutes Early: The player gets the general penalty applied to their first hole.
- Exception 3 – Committee Decides that Exceptional Circumstances Prevented Player from Starting on Time: There is no breach of this rule and no penalty.

b) When Round Ends

A player's round ends:

- In match play, when the result of the match is decided under Rule 3.2a(3 or (4) of R&A Rule Book.
- In stroke play, when the player holes out at the final hole (including correction of a mistake, such as under Rule 6.1 or 14.7b of R&A Rule Book.

7. Ties
